The Portable Power Puzzle

At the annual Tech Quest event, students from around the world gathered to solve a series of challenges related to the latest gadgets and technology. The final riddle promised to unlock the grand prize—an all-expenses-paid trip to a tech conference.

A group of friends—Vikas, Vindhya, Srujani—stood before the final puzzle board, ready for the challenge. The screen displayed the riddle:

"I'm portable, yet powerful, with many uses too,
From coding to gaming, I'm the tool for you.
With a screen and a keyboard, I'm ready to go,
In your backpack or on your desk, I'm always in tow.
What am I?"
